

Discussion 2: 11/21/2020

We have talked about which data we are going to use in the open flights and how to sort all of the data in order to organize it into a tree. We also practiced opening and reading text files and practiced using the git repository altogether.